So dramatic was the change that Nicky led his gang to the police to surrender their weapons. In return, they asked the shocked officers to autograph their Bibles.

This 55 minute film will help Adults and Youth alike find meaning and purpose in Christ.

No Law

"The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, longsuffering gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." Galations 5:22,23.

Abraham Lincoln once described his Bible reading in these words: "I am profitably engaged." His advice to his skeptic friend Joshua Speed was, "Take all of this book upon reason that you can, and the balance on faith, and you will live and die a happier and better man."

The Bible is the inspired Word of God. "Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost" (2 Peter 1:20). Inasmuch as the Spirit directed the men who wrote the Bible, surely what they wrote should be of benefit to mankind. This is what Lincoln meant. What does the Spirit offer us? Fruit, luscious fruit, which will make us better people. Note the fruit described in our text; and notice the word singular, implying "that one fruit includes all the Christian graces enumerated in V. 22,23." - The S.D.A. Bible Commentary on Gal. 5:22. Each grace mentioned is a vital part of the fruit as a whole. Can you imagine love being impatient? Could gentleness be unkind? Would the fruit in the Christian experience be complete if we are intemperate in anything? Temperance does not refer alone to abstinence from alcohol and tobacco. It refers to anything taken into the body that would be injurious to our health. After all, the body is the temple of the Holy Ghost.

Take the vitures Paul enumerated and consider them one by one. If there was only one virtue it would be hard to keep. Love! I have seen pagan people demonstrate more love for one another than I have seen in some churches that profess the name of Christ. Joy! What greater joy can a man experience than sharing the Love of Jesus with others?

Peace! Can there be greater peace in the heart of man than to lay his head on his pillow at night knowing he has done everything in his power that day, by God's Spirit, to witness for Christ? There is no law against our so ordering our lives that the fruit will be evident to everyone.

Sent in by Mrs. Annie R. Fore, PS Sec. for S.D.A. Church on Court St. in Historical Appomattox - Sabbath School - 10 a.m. Worship Service 11:15 - You are invited to come and worship with us - The invitation is to all, come and bring your friends with you.

11 Days Remain For ASC Nominations

Appomattox County farmers have only eleven more days to nominate candidates for Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) community committeemen.

"It's easy to do," said James R. Ford, Jr., Chairman of the Appomattox County ASC Committee. "Each candidate is nominated by a petition which has to be signed by at least three eligible voters. Each petition may name only one nominee. The petition may be on any sheet of paper. No special form is required. Included in the petition must be a statement that the candidate will serve if elected. Eligible farmers may sign as many petitions as they wish."

So far three petitions have been filed at the County ASCS Office, Appomattox. Closing date for nominations is Oct. 29. Election date is Dec. 3.

The three ASC committeemen elected by mail ballots for each ASC community will assist in administering ASCS farm programs.

Appomattox County farmers will also choose two alternate committeemen in the election. Alternates serve if a committeeman resigns, or can no longer serve in the position.

"Most farmers are eligible to be ASC community committee candidates," stated Mr. Ford. "Anyone, under 70 years old, a resident of the county, and eligible to participate in ASCS programs may be nominated."

When nominations close on Oct. 29, if six or more candidates have been nominated in each community, the petitions will be reviewed for validity. If fewer than six nominations have been made, each ASC community committee now in office will add the appropriate number of names before the slate is reviewed by the ASC County Committee.

Anyone eligible for nomination otherwise cannot be declared ineligible because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

Candidates who are eligible will receive a letter confirming this from the County ASC Committee no later than Nov. 16. Any candidate ruled ineligible will be so notified and may appeal the decision to the County Committee within 15 days.

"The South 40" by JAMES A. SMITH EXTENSION AGENT

This is the first year that it's been necessary to turn down requests to a feeder calf sale. The second sale on October 25 has 1800 head consigned. We had to turn away three Appomattox producers - limited facilities. This shows the need for advance planning.

You must be mushroom men. We've had several calls about control of mushrooms in lawns. Unfortunately there's not a good recommendation for that using a rake to get them off.

The last time we were able to recommend a mercury product the label has been removed from this use.

Several others have called to ask how to determine edible from poisonous. Sorry, but we don't have a publication that gives that info. Mushrooms can be deadly poisonous - if you don't know the varieties, you're better off getting yours at the supermarket.

Two weeks ago I had an opportunity to hear some outstanding speakers. They were all optimistic about agriculture. I want to share with you some quotes from their presentations.

"It's a great day for agriculture. The need to plan for the future is vital. The world today is focused on agriculture, while knowledge is multiplied - we need to learn more about delivery." - Robert Wilson, President University of Maryland.

"The Sixteen states with 1890 institutions have an enrollment of 50,000 students. These institutions enroll one of every five black college students in the nation." - Dr. Leon Asso. Dean, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University.

"America's farm income will reach $100 billion this year - up 50% over the past 24 months. Agriculture is the bright light in economic reports. There's a positive outlook for agriculture." - Phillip Campbell, Under Secretary of Agriculture.

"The U. S. has 6% of the world's population and uses 35 percent of the world's energy. Conservation is the immediate concern. 60% of our energy is wasted. By the year 2000 we could reduce our energy by 37% without changing our standard of living. In 1970 transportation used 25% of our energy and was the least efficient user - 55% was used in the auto. Residential use accounts for 22% of energy and industry uses 46%" - Senator J. Glenn Geall, Jr., Maryland.

"The big problem with agriculture is that most consumers are two generations removed from the farm. They are unable to separate facts from hair-brain ideas."

DDT is the single most important discovery in the last 100 years; including penicillin and the other antibiotics. It has saved more lives - reduced more pain - eleminated more poverty than anything else." Dr. Mitchell Zavon, President, Agatha Corp.
